RUN 14 FIELD of existence

*Where the sky appears to meet the earth at the horizon to form a cosmic cross
Activity carried out in that exact center line has power to affect many versions of reality*

The Community is honoured to present RUN 14 FIELD of existence, a solo exhibition of Susan Cianciolo, a multidisciplinary artist and designer based in NYC. This exhibition marks her first solo presentation in twenty years in France. Accompanied by a selection of Cianciolo's tapestries and video works, a performance, works in-situ and outdoor sculptures take over The Community Centre (9 rue Méhul) and The Community Garden (13 rue Méhul).

Cianciolo's performance piece is presented during the vernissage with live music by Anenon, a project by Brian Allen Simon, a Los Angeles-based musician and producer. Brian William Rogers, also known as Trustfall, will join Simon on guitar.

In parallel with the exhibition of Susan Cianciolo, The Community is delighted to present the third iteration of the garden wall series "This Wall From Some Ware Behind The Community" in The Community Garden at 13 rue Méhul. The artwork poster is by Ashland Mines, a multidisciplinary artist known for his DJ and production work under Total Freedom, currently based in New York. The garden wall series by Some Ware, is an ongoing collaboration with Brendan Fowler and Cali Thornhill Dewitt.
